

Qubit & Tunnel Junction Fabrication References:

Materials challenges and opportunities for quantum computing hardware:

<https://doi.org/10.1126/science.abb2823>

Materials in superconducting quantum bits:

<https://doi.org/10.1557/mrs.2013.229>

Enhanced coherence of all-nitride superconducting qubits epitaxially grown on silicon substrate:

<https://doi.org/10.1038/s43246-021-00204-4>

Superconducting qubits consisting of epitaxially grown NbN/AlN/NbN Josephson junctions:

<https://doi.org/10.1063/1.3663539>

3-Dimensional Integration of Epitaxial Magnetic Tunnel Junctions with New Materials for Future MRAM:

<https://ieeexplore.ieee.org/document/9508717>

Temperature dependence of tunnel magnetoresistance in serial magnetic tunnel junctions:

<https://doi.org/10.1063/5.0088020>

Study on the effect of re-deposition induced by ion beam etching on MTJ performances:

<https://doi.org/10.1063/1.5117312>

Sub-ns Switching and Cryogenic-Temperature Performance of Mo-Based Perpendicular Magnetic Tunnel Junctions:

<https://ieeexplore.ieee.org/document/9798832>

Magnetic Tunnel Junctions For Next Generation Of Conventional And Unconventional Computing Schemes:

<https://hdl.handle.net/11299/258911>